Lesson 1 for kids!

Memory Verse:

Ephesians 6:1

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

(Read the verse over three times)

Bible Reading

Proverbs 24:33 and 34

Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: so shall thy (your) poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

The hands in these verses are lazy hands. They fold up and do not work. Verse 34 tells that if you have lazy hands you will be poor. You will not have much, and it will be your own fault. ( In verse 34 the word “poverty” means very poor.)

Folded Hands That Are Lazy

Davey Johns was about to go outside to ride his bike when his mom asked, “Davey, did you make your bed and do your Bible page for today?” “No, Mom I want to ride my bike,” Davey answered. “First things first,” mother said, “now go back to your room.” It was a rule in the Johns house that Davey and his sister Dina were to make their bed and do a page from their Sunday School Bible time book right after breakfast and before anything else..

“Awe!” Davey thought, “I hate trying to get the sheet and blanket straight! It takes too much work. And why should I have to do Bible time every day? Jimmy’s mom goes to our church and she doesn’t make Jimmy do it! Davey plopped down on the unmade bed and folded his hands up under his chin. He was soon fast asleep. When he awoke it was to the sound of his sister yelling “Hey, Davey, it’s time to leave for my piano lesson! C’mon, Mom’s getting the car started!” “Oh no!” Davey thought, “Now I don’t have any time to make my bed and do a Bible page. I sure hope Mom doesn’t find out.” But Davey knew that God already saw it. As he left his room a verse from the Bible came to him...”Be sure your sin will find you out.” [It looks like Davey will have some trouble ahead, doesn’t it? Be sure to finish this lesson and send it back so you can get the next part of the story.]

Memory Verse: Ephesians 6:1

Proverbs 24:33 and 34

Folded Hands that are Good.

“Davey Johns just remembered a verse from the Bible “Be sure your sins will find you out.” He knew that meant that you cannot hide what you have done from God! Mother had put a nice bowl of cookie dough in the refrigerator to cool until they came back from Dina’s piano lessons. When they would return later from the piano lesson Davey and Dina could help to cut out cookies. They each had favorite cutters. Davey loved using his hands this way. He enjoyed taking his airplane shaped cookies to elderly Mrs. Jennings next door. She always told Davey that maybe they could fly away together on a vacation someday! Mother got her keys and went out to start the car.

As Dina hopped down the stairs and yelled to Davey she did not know that he was asleep. Davey grabbed his jacket, combed his hair, and ran after Dina as fast as he could. He had shut his door so Dina would not see that he had not made his bed. All morning Davey thought of ways to do his Sunday school Bible page before anyone could see it. Piano lessons went well, but Davey sure had a bad time. He didn’t even enjoy reading the Hardy Boys mystery book he had in his jacket pocket!

On their way home Mom asked, “Davey, what took you so long to make your bed and do your Bible Pages?”

“Oh,” exclaimed Davey, “I, ah, didn’t do it yet.”

“Why Davey? You were in there for 20 minutes! Whatever were you doing? mother asked.

Davey looked at his hands. He suddenly remembered this week’s Sunday School lesson. It was about a man who’s hands were so lazy that he would steal from others instead of working. He was not happy. He had to hide from the law, and he didn't even have a home. His lazy hands made him miserable. Just now Davey felt miserable too.

"Mom, I'm sorry," Davey said, "and when I get home, I'll make my bed and do my Bible Pages."

Mother stopped the car by the road. Her face wore a sad look (our sins hurt others too, don't they?) In a stern voice Mother said, "Davey, you are to obey your mother right away. You had lazy hands and now you will miss cutting out the cookies."

Mother was glad that Davey was truly sorry. She reminded Davey and Dina that we must also tell God that we have done wrong and ask Him to forgive us.

There is a right time to fold our hands and be still. That is in time of prayer. Davey, Mother, and Dina bowed their heads and folded their hands right there in the car. Mother prayed for her children and Davey asked God to forgive him for his lazy hands!

Here is a Sugar Cookie Recipe that you and your parents can make.

Maybe you can share them with someone else and tell them about Jesus.

Kids Sugar Cookies

1/2 Cup Shortening

1/4 Cup Margarine (softened)

1 Cup Sugar

2 Eggs

1 Teaspoon Vanilla

2 1/2 Cups Flour

1 Teaspoon Baking Powder

3/4 Teaspoon Salt

Beat together shortening, margarine, sugar, eggs and vanilla. Add in the flour, baking powder and salt. Cover and put in the refrigerator for 1 hour. Preheat oven to 350

Sprinkle counter with flour and roll dough out on top of the flour. Cut with cookie cutters. Place on ungreased cookie sheets and sprinkle with sugar. Bake 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly brown on edges. Get your mom or dad to check and see if the cookies are done and have them help you take them out of the oven!!! Cool the cookies on a rack or paper towels.

John 10:24-28

Hands With Scars.

Dina and Davey cleaned their rooms, took out the trash and swept the front porch just as mother had asked. This was an exciting day for the family because Uncle Martin was coming for a visit. Uncle Mart (that's what Davey and Dina called him) had been away for two whole years. Now he was coming to visit his only sister and her family.

By 2:00 all was ready. Even father was home early from his job. Everyone watched for Uncle Mart's blue van to pull into the driveway. At 2:30, the beep of a horn made them all run to the front window. Yes, at last, there was Uncle Mart! He hurried to the house where everyone hugged him. Mother cried and even dad had a tear on his cheek.

Uncle Mart reached out his hands to Dina to come for a "swing around" in the air. Dina said "I'm too big Uncle Mart; I'm 8 years old now." Uncle Mart smiled real big and said "I guess you have grown into a young lady while I was away." Uncle Mart, your hands have scars on them; do they hurt? No, Dina, they don't hurt. Say, how would you and Davey like to hear a Bible story about hands with scars? Sure, Uncle Mart," Davey said, "But first tell us what happened to your hands." All right, just as soon as I can get settled in we'll sit down and I'll tell you what happened to my hands.

“Uncle Mart, are you all settled in now?”, asked Dina. “Yes I am, Dina, and I haven’t forgotten my promise to tell you about the scars in my hands.” said Uncle Mart. Mom, Dad, Dina and Davey sat quietly while Uncle Mart told them this story. I know that you have been praying for me while I have been taking Bibles to other countries. Frank, my best friend and I were giving out Bibles one day in a Russian church when we heard screaming outside. As I got to the door I could see that the house across the street was on fire. A woman cried out “Someone, please help. My child is still in there!”

Frank and I ran to the front door, but it was hot from the fire inside. We could not go in there. Frank and I cried out to God to show us the right way in. Both of us ran to the same side of the house at once. There was a window there but Frank could not reach it. I could touch it so I felt the glass and it was cool, but the window would not open. I threw a rock and broke the glass, but some of the pieces did not fall out. Frank quickly knelt down and gave me his knee to climb up on. With my hands I broke away the rest of the glass and then I crawled through the window. Smoke from the fire was curling about the ceiling of the room. I could hear whining sounds and scratching behind a door across the room. I ran to open the door and out jumped a small dog. As I reached out he jumped right into my arms. Just then I saw a little boy hiding in the closet corner. In Russian words I called to him, “Come to me and I will help you, I will take you to your mother.” Seeing his little dog in my arms he reached right up to me. As I lifted him up, my hands hurt, but I held him close, bent over and headed back for the window. The smoke was getting in my eyes. I knew that I must hurry! Did they get to the window? ### HANDS WITH SCARS

CONTINUED:

In our last “Bible Pages”, Uncle Mart was carrying the little Russian boy and his dog to the window to save them from the burning house.

What happened next, Uncle Mart? asked Davey. Did you get back to the window? Yes, Uncle Mart continued, I cried out to the Lord to keep the fire from us. At the window, I leaned out as far as I could with the boy and his dog.

Frank caught the dog as it jumped into his arms. Then I lowered the boy to his happy mother. I dropped to the ground and soon we were all safe and away from the fire.

My hands were bleeding, so Frank got a first aid kit from our car. With it he cleaned the cuts and put bandages on them. They are all healed now. Only the scars are left. When others see them, I have a chance to tell them about the scarred hands of someone else, the Lord, Jesus Christ. Dina and Davey, the Lord Jesus came to this world to save people from a fire. It is a place called a “lake of fire” and it burns forever and ever. A fire where sinners will go after they die. The house fire you could put out, but not the fire in that place.

I had to climb up through the window to get to the little boy, Jesus had to be put on a cross and suffer and die to save sinners from eternal fire. His hands were nailed to the cross, His feet were also nailed to the cross. When he died, a soldier pierced Jesus’ side with a spear. The blood of Jesus ran out on the ground. That blood was the payment for sin. Jesus gave more than his hands for you and me. He gave his life. Jesus is God, as well as man. Jesus did not stay dead. He rose from the grave on the third day. Just as I reached to the boy and he came to me, Jesus is reaching out to boys and girls just like you to save them from eternal fire. All who will accept Jesus will be saved. He will one day carry them to Heaven and safety forever. Dina and Davey, I know that your mother and dad have both asked Jesus to be their saviour, but what about you?" "Yes, Uncle Mart," said Davey, "I asked Jesus to forgive me for my sins and be my Saviour. I told him that I did not want to go to the place called Hell. I asked him to take me to Heaven some day. Now I am saved and ready for Heaven."

What will Dina's answer be? Come along to Lesson 6 of "Bible Pages" to find out.

“Hands With Scars” Continued:

In our last story Uncle Mart asked Dina and Davey if they had ever asked the Lord Jesus to save them from sin and take them to Heaven some day? Davey had told Uncle Mart that he had, but what about Dina?

Let's go on to:

“A Clean Heart”

A tear slipped out of Dina's eye and she looked sad. “What's wrong?”, asked Uncle Mart. Dina said, “I was going to do that last week in Sunday School. Our teacher, Mrs. Roofner, told us about Heaven and Hell, and how no sin can go into Heaven. She said that Jesus can wash away our sins. She put a big white heart on the flannel board and said that when God made the first man, his heart was white and clean just like that. Then one day that first man sinned and his heart became black. Mrs. Roofner put a black heart on top of the white one. She said that everyone's heart is black with sin. Then she placed a red heart over the black one and told us that Jesus' blood can wash away all the black of sin. Our heart can be white again. She said that black hearts must never go to Heaven, only white one's can. She said we need to ask Jesus to wash away our sins so He can take us to Heaven some day. Just then someone came to the door for Mrs. Roofner. Then the bell rang and we all had to go to church. Your story about the house fire reminded me of the place called Hell.

“Uncle Mart I don't want to go there,” said Dina. Uncle Mart said, “Dina, look here at my Bible. This verse says “All have sinned and come short of the glory of God.” No one can get rid of their own sin. Now let's read John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." God loved us so much that he made a way for us to go to Heaven. Dina, the Bible says that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved. That means to pray to God. Tell him you know your heart is black. Ask him to forgive you of your sins. Ask for Jesus to come into your heart."

Dina did just that, and when she looked up after praying and a smile was on her face. She was not sad any more; her heart was clean! Is your heart black from sin or has it been made white by Jesus' blood? Ask God to wash away your sin today. God never lies and He made a promise, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." That means saved from ever going to Hell. It means that you will go to Heaven when you die.

You can tell others the story of the heart. First, using a heart shaped cookie cutter draw a heart of each color, red, black and white. Write this Bible verse on a strip of paper and glue it onto the black heart - Romans 3:23. Write Colossians 1:14 onto a strip of paper and glue it onto the red heart.

First, lay the white heart out and say that God made man with no sin and a clean, white heart.

Next, place the black heart over the white one and read Romans 3:23 from your Bible.

Then put the red heart over the black one and read Colossians 1:14 from your Bible.

Then take the white heart from the bottom and place it over the red heart. Tell them that Jesus can make their heart white again. It is a good idea to mark the verses in your Bible before you begin.

“The Important Next Step”

In our last story, we learned how to accept the Lord Jesus Christ into our hearts. Dina had accepted the Lord into her heart.

Dina’s mother and father gave her a big hug “We’re so glad that you are ready for Heaven now,” they said. “Me, too!” said Davey.

Just then a timer in the kitchen let them know that supper was ready. They all went to the kitchen to set the table and get out the food. When all was ready, Dad asked God’s Blessing on their meal.

“Please pass the grape juice, and could I have some crackers for my soup,” then chuckling he added, “This reminds me of communion.” Before anyone could agree, the storm that had begun outside, gave a great crack of thunder and the rain came down hard. Then a thump and a “woof” came at the door.

“What in the world is that?” exclaimed mother as they hurried over to look out. Dina and Davey together said, “That’s Buddy.” Davey said, “She lives on Parkwood Street and she must be afraid of the storm. She was out in the yard when we swept the front porch. We gave her the scraps from our lunch.”

“Davey, get a rope from the basement and tie her to the porch rail until the storm quits, and then you and Dina can take Buddy home before dark,” responded Mother.

By the time Davey got the dog tied, he was soaking wet. “Say,” he said, as he entered the kitchen, “this reminds me of when I got baptized. I am wet all over!”

After Davey got into dry clothes and supper was finished, Dad led in family Bible reading. “Tonight,” he said, “let’s go over some Bible verses about baptism. It is the important next step after someone gets saved.”

He showed them that after we are saved, we need to be baptized to show the world that we are God’s child. “We want to please God,” said Dad. Then he asked Davey, “What is baptism a picture of? Do you remember?” “Sure Dad, Pastor Parcell just preached on that! Going to the water is a picture of Jesus going to the cross and dying for our sin. When we go down under the water, it shows how Jesus died and was put in the grave. But when we came up out of the water, it shows how Jesus came out of the grave. He was alive again. He lives up in Heaven now. When we get baptized it shows others that we believe in Jesus and we want to follow him.”

That’s good Davey,” said Father. “Dina, why don’t we call Pastor? Would you like to tell him that you got saved today?” “Yes, Dad,” said Dina, “and may I ask him to baptize me?” You sure may, Dina,” said Father, “now let’s all pray and then we can make that call!”

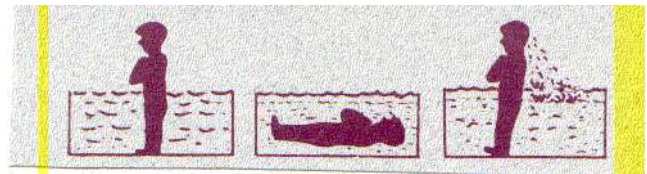

“And don’t forget about Buddy,” said mother. “Buddy,” isn’t that a strange name for a girl dog? She must be a real friend to her master. Oh, well, let’s be quiet and pray.” she said softly and bowed her head.

Lesson 8 for kids!

Memory Verses:

Matthew 28:19 - Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: Write this 3 times.

Bible Reading:

Psalm 107:2; Acts 8:4;
II Corinthians 5:17; John 8:32

In our last “Bible Pages” we learned about Baptism; Dina decided to be baptized. We also left a dog named “Buddy” on the front porch waiting for Dina and Davey.

Being a Witness

After prayer time and a call to Pastor Parcell, who was very happy about Dina’s salvation, Dina and Davey walked Buddy home. It was just two blocks to the small white house where the new people moved in. On the way Davey told Dina “I brought a Bible tract with me so we can tell Buddy’s family about Jesus and ask them to go to church. Jesus died for everybody and we need to tell them. It’s called being a witness.” “I thought that was someone who went to court for someone else,” said Dina.

Davey told her that a witness is anyone who knows something because he was there when something happened.

“They tell what happened so others can know the truth,” he said.

“We are a witness to others about Jesus because of what he did for us when we got saved. We have the Bible as evidence that Jesus died to save us. We have our own new life to tell them about.”

“Wow, Davey, I don’t know if I can do all of that.” remarked Dina.

“Sure you can, it’s easy. You just tell people what someone told you about Jesus. Tell them some Bible verses and say that they can get saved too, just by asking God to forgive them of their sins and asking Jesus to be their Saviour.” Davey explained.

Buddy saw her own home and dashed for the yard nearly pulling Davey off his feet.

“Hey Buddy, slow down,” yelled Dina as she tried to catch up. All three bounded up the porch steps knocking over a potted plant and making an awful racket. It only took a moment to see why Buddy was in such a hurry, for out of a big basket by the door romped four fuzzy puppies.

Lesson 8 for kids!

All that noise brought Buddy's people to the door. They were a young couple with friendly faces.

"We see Buddy's been up to her old tricks," said the man, "She likes to go visiting. Where we lived before she could run free; we lived on a farm. She liked to go play with the kids at the farms nearby. We were fencing in the back yard this morning and she slipped out of sight. We just put the puppies out here a little while ago hoping she would hear them and come home. We sat down on the steps and read the newspaper and waited, but the pups fell asleep. We just went inside a minute ago but we've sure been worried. Thank you for bringing her home. Say, here I am talking your leg off and you don't even know who we are. I'm Brian and this is my wife Deb."

"We know," said Davey, "We stayed with the Irwins next door just after you moved in last week and Buddy came over to meet us. She didn't stay long, she must have been worried about her family. Mr. Irwin told us he had met you and Buddy. He didn't say anything about puppies though!"

Deb spoke up, "That's because the puppies were in a travel cage yet." Then she said, "You know our names, what are yours?"

"I'm Dina; and I'm Davey," they answered. "And before we go," said Davey, "I would like to give you this Bible tract. It tells you how to get ready for heaven. I learned about Jesus and how He died for my sins, and I asked him into my heart. I have a new life now and I'm on my way to Heaven. Dina is too," without stopping he said happily "We sure would like to have you come to church with us, too! The address is on the back."

Davey witnessed to Brian and Deb. He did a real good job, but we'll have to wait till next time to see what happens.

Be a witness:

Ask someone to go for a Bible walk down the Roman's Road. Ahead of time, trace 4 little feet out of paper. Place the little feet where the following Scriptures are found in the Bible. Beginning at the first one read this verse . Go to the next one and do the same. At the end of the walk you can tell them that they can call on Jesus to save them just like you did!

Foot 1 Rom. 3:23 We aren't good enough for Heaven.

Foot 2 Rom. 5:8 We can get to Heaven through Jesus.

Foot 3 Rom. 6:23 Our way to Heaven is free.

Foot 4 Rom. 10:9, 10 and 13 If you believe this tell the Lord with your own mouth. God cannot lie. He will save you.

Memory Verse: Matthew 28:19

Find the verse in your Bible and Write it out on a card or paper. Keep it with you all week and practice saying it.

Bible Reading

I Corinthians 3: 6-8 and

Psalms 126:6

In our last “Bible Pages” Davey and Dina took “Buddy” the dog home. They were greeted by four puppies as well as B.J.(Brian) and Deb. Davey was a witness to B.J. and Deb. He gave them a gospel tract, and told them how Jesus had saved him. He even invited them to church!

Life from Seeds

Dina, Davey, Uncle Mart, Mom and Dad were out early Saturday morning, ready to plant a garden. Dad had tilled up the ground and Uncle Mart had picked out the rocks and made straight rows the evening before. While Mother and Dad put tomato plants in Dina and Davey helped Uncle Mart plant beans, corn and carrots. After putting the kernels of corn into the ground the children watched as Uncle Mart covered the seeds by hoeing dirt over them. Dina, who loves corn on the cob, ran to get the garden hose. Dina thought, “We’ll have this garden growing in no time, and I can’t wait to bite into an ear of corn!”.

When all of the ground was watered everyone got cleaned up and headed for the church. This was a special time when the people from Lighthouse Baptist Church would meet to pray for the unsaved around them. After prayer they would go out together to share the gospel with others. They called it “Sowing Time”.

As they drove into the parking lot, they could see Brooke and Billy Irwin holding the church doors open for others. As soon as the car stopped, Davey jumped out and ran over to Billy to ask how “Buddy’s pups were doing?” “They’re doing great,” said Billy, “and we’re going to get one of them as soon as they are old enough! Do you think you could have one? They all need homes.” Davey grinned and told Billy that his folks were going to talk to Brian and Deb about getting one of the pups. They had first agreed to it on their way to “Sowing Time”.

BIBLE PAGES

Lesson 9 for kids!

Everyone joined together in prayer. Then Pastor Parcell helped them all to decide where to go. He reminded them that sharing the Bible was like sowing seeds. “We prayed,” he said, “and that was like getting the ground ready. Now we will put some Scripture in each home that we go to. We will go to the homes again some time. Some of these people may work with a Christian. Maybe they have a relative who will also share the Word of God with them. That is just like planting and watering a garden.

I Corinthians 3: 6-8 teaches that some plant and some water but God gives the new life. Souls will be saved. It may take some time, but God’s word is never wrong. Some day people will be saved because we planted God’s word.” Then he said, “Dina Johns and Brooke Irwin,” “I have talked to your folks about giving you a special job today. We have a missionary friend staying with us for a while. She will be caring for the small children today here at the church. Since you two know their names and you are always kind and gentle with the little ones, we would like for you to help Miss Becky until all of the parents return.”

It was a good day for all the folks including Dina and Brooke who were a real help to Miss Becky! But that’s all the time we have for our story until the next time.

Special note:

There really was a girl dog named “Buddy”. She was a real pal to her owner and an outgoing, tail wagging friend to neighbors far and near.

She was known to be special company to a man recovering from a heart problem, a playmate to a little girl who did not have her own dog.

She was also a bright spot in an older neighbor’s day. She was a “buddy” to many different people. Just as Buddy went far and near spreading sunshine, we can go far and near spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Lesson 9 for kids!

Have you ever planted a seed and waited for it to grow? It takes a lot of time for some things to sprout up. Some seeds never grow. Some seeds come alive but the little plant may not live long. Growing plants takes time, work, and patience. We must be patient with planting our gospel seeds also!!!

One way to plant gospel seeds today is to invite some one to do Bible lessons. Remember that we have lessons for adults also!

Serve The Lord With Gladness

On the way home from Lighthouse Baptist Church, everyone was happy. Dad whistled the song “Go ye into all the world” and Mom chatted with Dina about how special it was to be trusted to help Miss Becky. Davey thought back to something Uncle Mart had said about serving God. He told Davey that serving God made him happy. Miss Becky sure seemed happy and she had to take care of all those little kids! Mom was always happy after sowing time. And Dad, well songs just seemed to bubble right up and out of him on those days.

Davey just got an idea of what he would share at “Kid’s Korner.” It was Davey’s turn to share something special that he had learned about being the right kind of a Christian. The right kind of a Christian is one who is happy in serving God! Davey closed his eyes and prayed “God, will you help me to always be happy to be serving you? And, Father, I am supposed to have a Bible verse for Kid’s Korner too. Will you help me to find one that is just right?”

That evening Dad asked Uncle Mart to lead in their family Bible time and what do you suppose Uncle Mart did? He asked each one to read a verse about serving God! He gave Mom

Romans 6:6. It says that we should not serve sin. Dad's verse was Romans 12:1 about how a Christian should give their body over to God and live a holy life. It says that is service to God.

Dina read John 12:26 "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am there shall also my servant be. If any man serve me, him will my Father honor." As Davey read Psalm 100:2, he knew that was what God had given him to share at Kid's Korner. "Serve the Lord with gladness: come before His presence with singing."

Dina and Davey must get off to bed now, but you will find them having a new adventure in their Christian life next time you get "Bible Pages!"

A Missionary's Story About Trusting God

“Good morning, boys & girls, and welcome to Lighthouse Baptist Church,” said Pastor Parcell. “Our Children’s Sunday School classes will meet together here in the sanctuary for a special time with our missionary friends, Mr. Martin Marsh and Miss Becky Trust. Each one has something special to share with you. Since ladies should always be first, let us welcome

“Hello, boys and girls. If you remember my last name, call it out real loud.” “Trust!” yelled several kids. “Yes, that is it,” said Miss Becky, “but do you know that I had trouble learning to do just that, trust in the Lord? You may say “Oh, but Miss Becky, you are a missionary! Surely you do not worry about things. You are very brave to go far away to another country!” Well, I thought I trusted God too, but it took a little girl to teach me how to really trust. Her name was Rosita. I call her my little Rose.

Rosita’s family had believed in Jesus as their Saviour. They no longer worshipped idols. Others of their village were coming to our church to listen. Those who believed and were saved began to burn or smash their idols. Many no longer paid money to the priests to say prayers for their dead loved ones.

Rosita’s older brother, Juan, went day after day to stand in front of Pedro’s shop where statues are made and sold. Juan spoke to the people who came and went there about the one true living God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. He would say that Jesus is the only way to Heaven. Jesus is the only one we are to fall down before in prayer to the Heavenly Father. Many times Pedro would come out of the shop and scold Juan and chase him away.

One day Juan did not come home. Rosita was sent to look for him. She went straight to Pedro's shop. "Pedro, did you see my brother?" she asked. "Yes," Pedro answered with a loud voice. "I have warned him that I would call the police if he did not stop this talk about the Jesus who does not like idols. Your brother is in jail and I hope they keep him there until he learns not to speak so!"

"In jail!, My brother is in jail and we cannot get him out," thought Rosita, "but I know who can!"

Miss Becky Learns To Really Trust God

In the last lesson:

Miss Becky told the children at Lighthouse Baptist Church that Pedro had Juan put in jail for telling people about the Living God- Jesus. Rosita knows that she cannot help Juan to get out of jail. She will trust God to do it!

Miss Becky continues:

Rosita ran all the way home with the news that Pedro has had Juan put in jail! I was with Rosita's mother that day so I said, "Rosita, run to all of our church families. Have them come here to pray." When they were all there, we closed the gate to their yard and locked it. Pedro and his sons would be drinking Tequila which would make them very drunk! They could be coming to taunt Rosita's family. One hour passed. We called on God to keep Juan safe. We asked Him to help us all be as brave to witness to others as Juan is. We begged God to set Juan free.

The gates outside began to rattle. Someone was out there! Everyone thought that Pedro was causing trouble, but not Rosita! She raced from their house and down the garden path. Juan, it is you! Yes, Rosita, God has set me free!

Without thinking to unlock the gate, Rosita hurried to tell the others that Juan was free and standing at the gate. "He can't be there", someone said. But Rosita smiled her happiest smile, and looking toward heaven she said, "We asked God to care for Juan. We asked Him to set him free!"

I know that I did not really trust God to do this impossible thing. I took Rosita's hand and hurried to the gate just in time to hear Juan yell, "God has set me free from jail. Will you leave me here at this gate all night?!" With joy we unlocked the gate and returned to the house with Juan.

That night I learned that if a little child could trust God that much, then I could too!

trusting God, I have brought each of you a bookmark with a little rose and the words, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart.”

Pastor Parcell thanked Miss Becky for sharing that wonderful mission story and then asked Mr. Martin Marsh to come to the platform.

To Dina and Davey’s delight, Uncle Mart shared with the whole Sunday School his trip to Russia and the story of his scarred hands. He asked if anyone would answer God’s call to become a missionary.

In Davey’s heart he could hear God say, “Davey, I want you to go.” Davey walked to the front of the church where he knelt down and prayed, “God, I will go wherever you tell me. I know that I am just a boy, but I love you, and I love your Bible.”

Trust In The Lord And Do Good

Summertime for Dina and Davey was nearing an end. Soon Uncle Mart would be leaving to do some extra Bible college studies. Buddy The Second was growing fast. The corn was ripe and ready to eat. Everything seemed so fine to Davey.

This bright morning Davey had just made his bed when he heard a knock at his door. "Come in" he called. It was Uncle Mart and he was looking very happy! "Davey, said Uncle Mart, "come down stairs with me. Dina is waiting for us in the kitchen."

When they were seated, Uncle

Mart began, "You heard the phone ring a few minutes ago. That was Miss Becky Trust. The Lord has been very kind to me. I have waited a long time for Him to help me find the right girl to marry.

I asked Miss Becky to be my wife last night. She said 'Yes' and that was her calling to let me know that we can have a May wedding.

We would like to ask you and Dina to be in our wedding. Davey, we would like for you to carry the rings, and Dina, you would spread rose petals down the isle for Miss Becky to walk on?"

At the same time Dina and Davey jumped up and ran to Uncle Mart. They threw their arms around his neck and said "Yes, we want to be in your wedding!"

"May sure is a long time off though," said Dinah. "How will we ever wait that long?"

Mother, who was also there smiling happily, answered that question. "Well, there is a lot to do to get ready for a wedding. There are

BIBLE PAGES

Lesson 13 for kids!

dresses to shop for and food to plan. They will have to order invitations, a cake, and there are many, many other things to do. Don't forget, Uncle Mart has schooling to do, and so do you two."

"Awe mom, did you have to bring up school now?" Davy's excitement kind of went away, but mother was quick to help Davey.

"You remember last night's devotions don't you? When dad used the verse "Trust in the lord and do good..." and "...the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit." Uncle Mart has waited patiently for the Lord to bring him the right wife. All that time he has been doing God's will for his life.

God's will for you children right now is to go to school so you will be able to do well all that God has for you. Davy, a missionary must prepare by learning all that he can. I know that the school year sometimes seems long, but you have the Lord to help you through it. So trust in the Lord and do good from now until next May.

The Lord will bless you for obeying and for working hard. You will enjoy the wedding even more than if it had come right away."

Well, I wonder what will be happening in Dina and David's life next time. I am sure that they are putting their newly learned Bible truths to work in their lives. I trust you will be also!
