

FINDING DIRECTION IN GOD'S WORD®

SEPARATED, SET APART

Lesson Ten*

I. As a Christian, you are set apart from the World and unto God.

- A. But as He which hath called you is Holy, so _____ . . . (1 Peter 1:15a).
- B. Love not the _____ neither the things that _____
_____ . . . (1John 2:15a).
See also James 4:4.
- C. For all that is in the world, the _____ of the _____, and the _____ of the _____, and the _____ of _____, is not of the _____ . . . (I John 2:16).

II. The Bible teaches us to behave differently from the World.

- A. And be not _____ to this _____: but be ye _____ by the _____ of your _____ . . . (Romans 12:2 a).
- B. Let no _____ communication (bad talk) proceed out of your _____, . . . (Ephesians 4:29a).
See also James 4:6-10.
- C. I will set no _____ thing _____ mine _____: (Psalm 101:3a).
- D. . . .remove thy _____ from _____ (Proverbs 4:27b). See also 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 & 2 Corinthians 7:1
Initial that you have read these. _____

III. The Bible teaches that there is to be a definite separation between true Christians and non-Christians. It also shows us that we cannot have agreement with other religions.

- A. Be ye not _____

- _____ with _____:
(2 Corinthians 6:14a). See also verse 17.
- B. And what agreement hath the temple of God with _____ (2 Corinthians 6:16a)?
As a true born again believer, God lives in you.
- C. But though we or an _____ from _____ preach any _____ unto you than that which we have preached unto you let him be _____ (Galatians 1:8).
- D. If there come any unto you, and bring not this _____ (salvation through Christ alone) receive him _____ into your _____, neither bid him God speed (2 John 9 &10).

While the world is trying to get everybody together, God teaches a definite separation. Those who believe in getting to Heaven by keeping church ordinances, just being morally good, trusting in baptism for salvation, etc. are not to be joined together with true Christians. Some religions have idols as part of their church and home life. Still others follow new revelations or new prophets, (those who came on the scene since Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection). All of these are spiritual counterfeits. God's desire is that the individuals be shown the error of their way, but He does not sanction joining with them in private church or public groups.
